

LONDOS SIGNS TO MEET HARBERTSON DECEMBER EIGHTH

Greek Champion Agrees to Throw Local Mat Star Twice in Ninety Minutes at Catch Weights Under Police Gazette Rules; Referee to Be Named By Committee of Seven Men.

Jack Harbertson of Ogden and Jim Londos, Greek heavyweight champion, signed articles of agreement yesterday afternoon for their match which will be staged in Ogden October 8. Under the agreement made between the two men and their representatives, Londos agrees to throw Harbertson twice in ninety minutes. If he secures but one fall in that time he loses, while if Harbertson on the other hand secures a fall over Londos, Londos also loses.

Both men posted five hundred dollar forfeits with Promoter Ezra Peterson to insure their appearance on the night of the match.

The match will be staged under Police Gazette rules with catch as catch can style ruling. The third man in the ring will have full power and his decision in the contest will be final. He will be selected by the following men 48 hours before the match: Owen Bennett, C. R. Cole, Promoter Ezra Peterson, Severin Johnson, James Paul, Al Warden and Theodore Geffax.

Eight men have been named from which the committee will select the referee. The men named are: Sam Clapham, English champion; George Nelson, Preston, Ida, Nick Collins, Boies, Jack Childs, Boies, Ben Petrie, Green River, W. C. Blinford, Ogden, Earl Stoker, Rock Springs and Harlan Paxton of Ogden.

All unnecessary roughness will be barred in the contest, the referee to have full power to act if either of the contestants resorts to this style of wrestling.

Londos has been after a match with Harbertson for more than three years and is elated over the fact that he has at last secured his chance against the local star. Londos departed last night for Boston where he is scheduled to mix on the mat Friday evening. He is slated to meet Peck.

SPORT CHATTER BY AL WARDEN

Walter McCredie, manager of the Portland club in the Coast League during the past year, has declined the position of manager tendered him by the Seattle club. McCredie has been connected with the Coast League for the past twenty years.

In selecting Robert S. Weaver as head of the Amateur Athletic union of the United States, the representatives of the various sections of the organization in attendance at New Orleans, selected one of the most ardent sport boosters in the entire United States. Weaver knows the track game from all angles and is one of the best liked men on the west coast.

Weaver pronounces Creed Haymond the fastest sprinter in the world. While in this city recently he stated that Creed had no equal in the far long and but for the fact that he tore a ligament in the finals at Boston, that he would have shattered the world's record in the 200 meters run.

December 14 is the date selected for the Jack-Dempsey-Bill Brennan battle. The contest will be staged at Madison Square Garden, New York.

Benny Leonard and Joe Wellington will clash at the Garden on November 26. The lightweight title will be at stake in this contest.

Pete Herman will defend his bantam crown against Joe Lynch at the Garden on December 2.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—When Governor-elect Nathan L. Miller visits this city either tomorrow or Friday, prominent boxing enthusiasts plan to confer with him and endeavor to learn his attitude regarding boxing in this state under the new Walker law.

Persistent reports have been widely circulated in sporting circles that an effort will be made to repeat the Walker act at the next session of the legislature, especially if an attempt is made to stage the bout between Dempsey and Carpenter in the state.

COWBOYS ARRIVE HERE THURSDAY

The University of Wyoming grid-ders, twenty strong, will arrive in Ogden shortly after 12 o'clock tomorrow and will hold a two-hour workout here prior to departing for the scene of their next battle, Salt Lake. The Cowboys, under Coach John Corbett, expect to have their hands full when they clash with the Crimson and from present indications the contest should be a good one.

Eighteen players, together with the manager and Coach Corbett, will invade Salt Lake. Thus far this season the Cowboys have made a wonderful record and the odds favor them to win from the Crimson. On the other hand Coach Tommy Fitzpatrick of the Crimson can see nothing but victory for his aggregation.

Following the contest at Salt Lake the Cowboys will journey to Ogden where they will complete their season against the fast Ogden A. A. eleven Turkey day. This contest should be a battle from start to finish. Weber Normal college will be the training camp of the visitors while in Ogden. They will work out daily on the Tabernacle square.

Although the officials for the game have not been selected as yet, it is probable that Wil Ashburn will be referee. Wyl has ruled in several of the games played in Ogden this season and his work has been of the first order. He is without doubt one of the best officials in the western country.

BASEBALL DISPUTES TO BE DECIDED IN CHI, SAYS LANDIS

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—All disputes in professional baseball will be settled in Chicago, Federal Judge Keneaw M. Landis said Tuesday in reply to queries as to how he planned to retain his position on the bench and still find time to perform his duties as baseball commissioner, the position to which he recently was appointed by unanimous action of the two major leagues.

"When baseball matters come up, the participants will come to me here in Chicago to plead their case," said the judge. "I have nothing to do on Saturdays and Sundays and federal court also is closed during much of the baseball season. I'll handle the two jobs without any trouble—I guess my record for the past fifteen years is sufficient assurance that I can handle anything that comes before me. The persons criticising me on the grounds that I can't handle two jobs are not afraid I won't be able to do my work. They are afraid that I will."

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Abbe Atell, ex-pugilist, mentioned in connection with investigation of "grime" of the 1919 world's series voluntarily appeared today at the office of Acting District Attorney Talley. Atell, who recently returned from Montreal, said he was available at any time he was "really wanted" by the authorities.

"I certainly will not be the goat," Atell was quoted as saying, "but there is a case impending in Chicago, with lots of indictments against different parties, and I don't want to talk while that matter is still unsettled."

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS—He Wants Everything He Sees!

TIGERS PRIMED FOR WEST HIGH

Coach Stubby Peterson's Ogden high school grid-ders are primed for their battle against the fast West high aggregation to be staged at Lorin Farr park next Saturday afternoon. This contest should be one of the best games of the season and with that end in view the Tigers are working harder than ever in an effort to trim their rivals.

Last Saturday at Salt Lake the Panthers were outwitted by the Leopards and met defeat, the score being 6 to 2. Their showing, however, was regarded as remarkable and they outplayed the Leopards in all departments of the game. They made first down twice to every one registered by the Leopards and on line backs, end runs and forward passes were far superior to the East high stars.

The Leopards trimmed the Tigers 33 to 9 at Salt Lake and while the Panthers played the Leopards off their feet, local backers are of the opinion that the Tigers will turn the tables on the Panthers and romp home victors.

Officials for this contest will be named by President Moss of the high school athletic association at Salt Lake Thursday.

The game is slated to start at 3 o'clock. Four hundred rooters from the West high will depart from Salt Lake in a special train Saturday at 12 o'clock noon.

HE'S THE KID COACH

Future Looks Brilliant For Meehan of Syracuse

COACH MEEHAN

Alonzo Stagg and "Hurry Up" Yost began their coaching careers before Chick Meehan was hardly out of rompers.

Both of the veteran mentors are past the fifty mark. Meehan at 24 is coaching one of the biggest outfits in the east—the Syracuse eleven. He is the youngest big league football coach in harness this fall.

When Buck O'Neill went down to the big town this fall to coach Columbia, his mantle fell upon the shoulders of the youthful Chick.

LOOKS UP AT MEN. He's so small that he has to look up into the faces of his big line-men when giving them advice.

Meehan is continuing the O'Neill system because that is the stuff that made him a star quarterback for the Syracuse team a few years ago.

Chick came to Syracuse in 1914 as an untried and untried as any other humble freshman. The following year he was a hero and a star.

His name never was mentioned on the All-American eleven because he did not desire to star individually.

FATE HAS RAISED THE "DEUCE"

But American Tennis Cracks Will Make A Lot of Racket In Fight For Davis Cup

BY LORRY A. JACOBS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Everything is not so bright and rosy for the United States Davis cup players, William T. Tilden, Watson Washburn, Samuel Hardy, and William M. Johnston, as it might be.

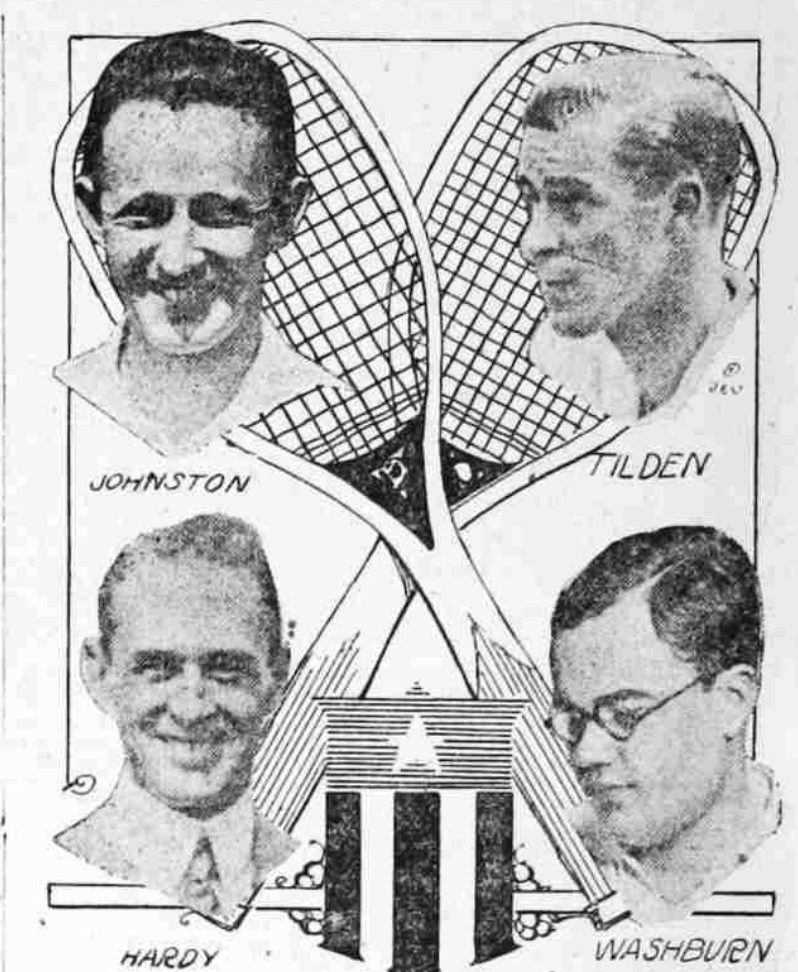

A few months ago it looked like duck soup for the American racquet-ers in their journey to the Antipodes to race for tennis honors. But not so now!

WILLIAMS OUT OF IT. A lot of things can happen in a few months and they certainly have been happening overtime with the tennis-ers.

In the first place, on the eve of the departure of the players R. Williams, the handiest server of the lot, announced that he could not go because of business affairs. Gloom spread like football players for a kick-off.

But even more important was the sudden way in which Tilden cut short his trip across the continent Sept. 16. He was playing at Sioux City and suddenly announced that his constitution wouldn't stand it and came back home suffering from a nervous breakdown.

He has since announced that he is again fit, but the doubtful dodges have been shaking their heads and spilling gloom in much the same fashion.

tion that the prohibition agents spill confiscated liquor.

BEST AUSTRALIANS. And now the sad birds are digging up the disastrous experiences of the American team in 1911 to show that the four Yankees who will make the trip are courting disaster. However, this has been offset by the more recent victory of Americans over the Australian players who came here a year ago.

The American team has been scheduled to sail from Vancouver, B. C., on the Niagara, Nov. 12. They will go directly to Auckland, arriving about the first of December. This will give them several days before the matches open for the Davis Cup, the first game being scheduled for Dec. 29.

No end of preparations has been made in Australia. A special court is being built and there will be stands to accommodate 7000. This, of course, is starting to American tennis players who are used to seeing such small galleries. The overhead game is a big hit in Australia.

MAY PLAY AT SINGAPORE. Tilden has consented to a special series of matches in Australia following the challenge matches. These games will stretch over three weeks and will include Melbourne, Victoria, Adelaide, Sydney, and a number of other places. There is also a chance that the American team may play in Singapore on the way home.

In spite of all the discouraging news, there are few in America who really believe that the Americans will not bring back the bacon—which in this case is wrapped up with the Davis Cup.

The Insider Says

You kin talk about your "youth will," But then the thought's cut short. If you'll stop to think what's doing in Most any line of sport.

Of John D. is quite a golfer and Of Weston's there on hikes. And there's many who will make the Can trim the little ticks.

You can hardly decide whether it's best to say "like father, like son," or "like son, like father," when it comes to sport doing.

In these days of goat glands, jazz music and general peppiness, no doubt there are a lot of pops who started out to train under the coaching of a son.

We've seen dad out in the front yard playing catch with his oldest.

And nine times out of ten, he's got it all over the youngster.

And while there are a lot of youths on many big league baseball squads, there are also the old gents still showing 'em how it's done.

Betcha Tris Speaker will never see kid days again. He's got gray hair and a nice bald spot on his head.

And pike John D., of old fame. He'll play golf with the best of them, rain or shine.

Weston, the long-distance hooter, has walked farther, since he's "growned" up than a dozen youngsters put together.

And how about Warren Harding as a horseshoe pitcher?

Warren has long since passed out of his kid days, and yet he heaves a wicked horseshoe.
